Signs Say 1941 Good

By FOREST H. AKERS

Vice president and director of sales, Dodge Division, Chrysler Corp.

Formerly it was the closing of the baseball season that told us Autumn had arrived and we were not far from the beginning of another year. Nowadays the automobile show presenting newer, more beautiful, more efficient cars than were seen the year before.

It has become an adage in the business world that as goes the automobile industry, so goes the business of the nation generally. A good automobile year usually means a good business year for practically everybody.

When the time approaches for the first unveilings of our new models, we of Dodge naturally want our dealers and the automobile writers of the newspapers to be first to see our new product. Therefore, it is a fixed practice with us each year to organize crews of factory-trained personnel, each group headed by a headquarters sales executive, to conduct introductory dealer meetings in thirty or more major cities. Accompanying these crews are men specially trained to make surveys of business conditions and to gather business facts.

When the crews have returned to the company's home offices, their reports, covering practically every section of the United States, give us an intelligent picture of observable economic trends and business prospects.

The reports of these crews are now in and they, checking rather accurately with surveys made by independent agencies whose forecasts are noted for correctness and conservatism, lead us here to foresee a 1941 season of business and prosperity.

I see three distinct factors giving tangibility to the prediction of good 1941 business. The first is that the 1941 models offer more in beauty, value and economy for the money than ever before. The second factor is the realization that industrial development in this country points definitely to the employment of many more wage earners. The third factor is that this increase in the nation's purchasing power will cause more worn-out automobiles to be scrapped in 1941 than in previous seasons.

Karloff Transformed to Monster

Four hours work, twelve pounds of make-up and the skillful hands of Jack Pierce transform Boris Karloff into the Frankenstein Monster of Universal's "Son of Frankenstein." Upper row, left to right: Making experimental model; wig and headpiece in place, Pierce applies paint; lining and aging face. Lower row: Attaching putty eyelids; making scars; and the finished make-up. Fox Sequoia Theater audiences will thrill to this, "The Son of Frankenstein," with Bela Lugosi, and Basil Rathbone, on a dual bill with "The House of Fear," on Wednesday, Halloween Eve.

MARTIN FLYNN GIVEN POST

County Assessor Martin J. Flynn today had received word that he has been appointed to the legislative committee of the State County Assessor Association. The appointment was made by the association's president, John Herrera of San Joaquin County.

The last census of northern Ireland, in 1937, showed 656,000 females and 623,000 males.

Willkie Is the Doctor To Bring Recovery

(Editorial)

"He launched a political attack against our enterprises; he kept our economic system in turmoil; he made our depression permanent."

In these crisp words Wendell Willkie points a finger at the millstone about the neck of American enterprise.

The inference is plain. Not until a political operation removes this tumor from our nation's industry can we hope to go forward to recovery, prosperity and national contentment.

It now appears that Wendell Willkie is the surgeon who will successfully perform that operation.

Twenty-one presidents of the United States, including Franklin D. Roosevelt, were lawyers.

Haile Selassie of Ethiopia has been called "Mr. Tafari" while in exile.

Carloads Are Shipped

San Mateo County's big chrysanthemum "push" is on, according to County Agricultural Commissioner Max J. Leonard.

Thousands of boxes of the huge "mums" for which the county has become famous are being shipped to New Orleans for the annual All Saint's Day celebration there, Oct. 30. Leonard said. Between six and eight carloads of the flowers will be shipped from Redwood City between now and Saturday in refrigerated express cars after they have been inspected by a staff of eight members of the agricultural commissioner's office.

Leonard explained that the inspection is necessary because of quarantine laws in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado. The flowers must be certified by the department before they can be shipped. First inspection was made six weeks ago at the various nurseries between Belmont and Palo Alto, and another was made three weeks ago. The final inspection is being made now as the flower growers rush their packing to get the last box of "mums" on the cars by Saturday.

County Tax Bills Mailed by Collector

San Mateo County's tax bills—some 70,000 of them—will all be in the mail by the end of the week, Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney announced here. McSweeney said that the first of the bills had been mailed early this week and that the job should be completed by Saturday. All the Redwood City bills have been sent out, he added.

McSweeney advised taxpayers who fail to receive their bills by Nov. 1 to notify his office.

Traffic Victim Son Of Belmont Couple

Rober O. Bovey, 45, San Francisco carpenter who was fatally injured Sunday when struck by a car while crossing Bayshore Hwy. in the north end of San Mateo County, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bovey of Belmont. He was a native of Grass Valley.

Besides his parents, Mr. Bovey is survived by his wife, Maggie; a brother, Carl, and a sister, Mrs. Laona Primas.

CRASH VICTIM DIES

Injuries suffered eight days ago in an automobile accident on Junipero Serra Blvd. proved fatal last night to Harry Krause, former professional ball player and St. Mary's College graduate. MENLO PARK NEWS

MENLO PARK—Dan Dolan, the candidate for supervisor for the first township, was in town this week. The bets are 3 to 1 that he will be elected. Menlo Park will give him a rousing vote.

On a wire stretched across Oak Grove Ave. to Pine St. connecting two telegraph poles may be seen a tree squirrel every morning crossing on it to the White estate. The animal's skill is admired by many who stop to watch the daily performance.

Mrs. W. L. Cornell of El Paso, Tex., is here on an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. James Jones of Robles Ave. Mrs. Cornell is a prominent socialite in her community.

Under the auspices of the Menlo Park Republican Club, a rally will take place in the Kuck Gardens Tuesday evening next. James Brennan and other speakers will address the assemblage. Mayor Joseph Day and Mayor James B. Howell of Atherton will also make short addresses. Sandwiches and coffee are to be served after the speaking. This will be the final Republican meeting before election. A large crowd is expected.

The Republican headquarters in the Artini building in charge of Mrs. W. J. Mahaney of Atherton is frequented by hundreds daily seeking campaign literature and information about the approaching election. From the enthusiasm displayed at the headquarters it is believed Menlo Park will give a 2 to 1 vote in favor of Wendell Willkie. The bets are now 10 to 7 that Willkie carries the state and will be elected by a splendid majority.

St. Francis Catholic Church at Runnymede will be dedicated this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by Archbishop John J. Mitty. The first mass in the new church is to be celebrated by Father Thomas McKeon on Sunday morning. The people of Runnymede have worked hard for many months to raise funds for construction and feel satisfied in accomplishing what at first appeared a difficult task.

This week many robins arrived here from the north and their coming is supposed to be a harbinger of rain. The farmers of long ago always considered the first appearance of robins meant a storm. Let the rain come. It is needed.

Mrs. Fannie I. Kurtz, the popular city clerk, is enjoying her annual vacation in New Mexico. Thomas Kearney is temporarily in charge of the office.

There appears to be no truth in the story circulated last week that the City of Atherton was considering a plan to be annexed to Menlo Park. The combining of the two cities would no doubt reduce taxes and bring about a better feeling between the two communities, but at this time such a proposition would be defeated. Future years may see the two amalgamated. It would be the best thing for both.

Willkie Units Invite Public

Remember the song hit of some decades ago—There Will Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight?

That title promises to come to life in Redwood City the evening of Nov. 4 by means of a big torchlight parade.

Young Republicans and Willkie supporters in San Mateo County are sponsoring the program, culminating in a bonfire rally at "Butcher Field."

Forming at the Southern Pacific depot at 8 p.m., marchers and their flares will sweep through the business district seeking last minute enlistments under the Willkie banner.

Willkie Volunteers, Veterans for Willkie, Young Republicans of Sequoia High School and Young Republicans of San Mateo County jointly are arranging marching details under direction of the parade chairman, Floyd F. McCue.

Any individual or group wishing to participate in the parade and political demonstration is asked to communicate with the Redwood City Tribune or the Young Republican headquarters, 309 Second Ave., San Mateo.

Dr. Stanton R. Burns is in charge of the torchlights. James T. O'Keefe Jr. is arranging the police escort; Mrs. Arnold North, the flags and guard of honor.

John E. Manders, assisted by James Gusman, is completing plans for the bonfire rally. Signs are being prepared by the Willkie Volunteers.

Residents of San Mateo County and Palo Alto are invited to participate, Willis Chapman and H. D. McKay Jr., publicity directors, said today.

All of County's Draft Lists Now Posted

San Mateo County's draft board offices were beehives of activity today as registrants flocked to headquarters in the five areas of the county to look up their respective serial numbers.

All the selective service lists had been completed today and were posted outside each draft office where they may be seen by those who registered for conscription last week.

The Redwood City list is posted in the main lobby of the courthouse annex, although the draft office, headed by Judge E. I. McAuliffe, is located on the third floor of the annex in the old press room next to the supervisors' chambers.

Ownership of Home Often Cheaper Than Renting

FHA Financing

Payments Are Reduced

Home ownership now is cheaper than paying rent in a majority of Northern California communities, with monthly purchase payments materially reduced since inception of the FHA plan, according to statistics compiled by the district office of the Federal Housing Administration.

Due to recent reductions in FHA financing costs, it was shown that payments averaging $26.04 a month are paying off insured mortgages on new homes built in this district during the first nine months of the year. This is a drop from $37.44 average monthly payments on new home mortgages insured in this area in 1936, and a substantial reduction from the $35.33 average in 1937, from $30.06 average in 1938, and an average of $28.80 a month in 1939.

These payments, it was declared, repay the amount borrowed, which usually covers construction costs, interest on the loan and mortgage insurance.

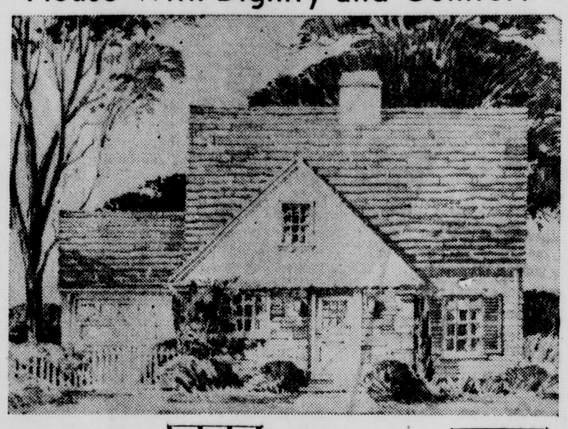
Costs and valuations vary throughout the district, according to FHA.

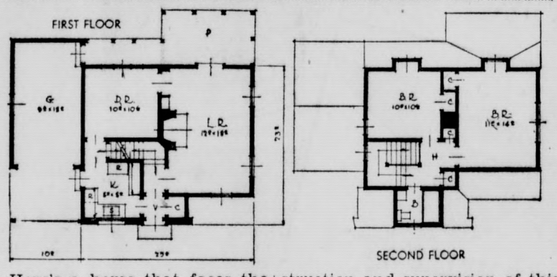
In San Francisco metropolitan area, including the Peninsula and counties bordering the bay, where more than 75 per cent of all homes built last year were financed under the Federal Housing plan, the average mortgage on new homes amounted to $4830. More than half, or 55.2 per cent, were written for more than 20 years. The average appraised value was $5814, of which $908, or 15. per cent, represented land value.

That families in lower income groups are taking advantage of the safety features of long-term insured mortgage financing under the Federal Housing plan is attested by the fact that 45 per cent of the owners of newly-built homes in Northern California had annual incomes between $2000 and $3000, while 24 per cent earned less than $2000 a year. In other brackets, 25 per cent had incomes between $3000 and $5000, and only 6 per cent had incomes of $5000 or more a year.

An increasing number of houses now are being built in suburban areas under the new 15-year $2500 plan, it was reported. This permits a down payment as small as five per cent, and requires that the entire amount of the loan be invested in actual construction. Payments under this plan were said to average about $20 a month to pay off the mortgage, interest and other fixed charges.

House With Dignity and Comfort





Here's a home that faces the street with dignity and pride and makes a delightfully private family gathering place of the broad rear porch.

Dwellers in suburbia will appreciate the tasteful restraint and beauty of the street facade, a trim early American design in story-and-a-half construction finished in random stone and siding.

The interior provides ample room at low cost, with bedrooms conveniently arranged on the second floor. The garage is attached.

Information concerning construction and supervision of this modern home can be obtained at any agency affiliated with the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or by writing the board office in Washington, D. C.

Approximate cost of this home in Baltimore, exclusive of building site, would be $3500-$3700.

JUST A WHIM

AUBURN, Me. (AP) — Motorist Gilbert B. Caron of Lewiston told Auburn police that a passing carthorse reared, swerved toward his car and raked one side of the machine from front fender to door with his forelegs. The car was dented badly. The horse, unharmed, placidly went his way.

Hoefler

Six-Room Houses Open

Attracting considerable attention are two new six-room houses on Cotton Ave., Menlo Park, between Santa Cruz and Middle Aves., west of El Camino Real (see pictures at right).

Each house, different in type, is alike through having three bedrooms, explained the builder, Harry Hoefler, realtor, today.

"Not only are these dwellings available, but two five-room structures are nearing completion," said Hoefler. "Four houses recently were sold in this tract where tax and insurance rates are low."

The new structures are in a highly restricted tract so far as racial differences and type of houses are concerned, and are one mile from the Menlo Park depot and one and a half miles from Palo Alto and Stanford University.

One structure sits on a 70x153-foot lot, the other on a 93x153-foot lot.

The ranch (long, rambling) type of structure has a covered terrace and barbecue pit in the rear, Venetian blinds with drapery heads on the interior.

The other building is more conventional and, as the realtor explains, consequently more compact. Both houses have large rooms and an abundance of good light.

Hoefler will be at his property Saturday, Sunday and evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. to show interested parties the premises.

Interior Decoration

'Buy Furniture, Curtains As You Buy Your Clothes'

There's no mystery about interior decoration. Any woman can do a good job on any room in her house if she will just be herself—her bravest self.

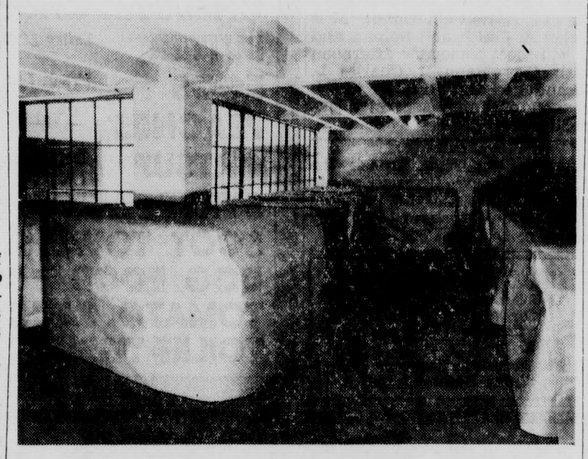
These words of encouragement come from William Wright Crandall, prominent industrial designer and interior decoration authority, who has recently been appointed director of industrial design for the American School of Design.

"Before you decide on a new color scheme or buy a single accessory, write a memo to yourself, telling what kind of person you think you are, what kind of home best suits the needs of you and your family," Crandall explains.

"Be honest with yourself. If you are the homey type who likes comfort and leads an informal social life, say so. Don't strive for sophisticated effects which will make an entirely incongruous background for your personality.

"Buy furniture or curtains as you buy hats—because they please you and your husband, bring out your own best features and, in general suit your mode of life."

Crandall lists reseda green, cobalt blue, tobacco brown and cedar as fine informal colors to consider. He puts chartreuse, turquoise, prune and fuchsia into a formal category.



Visitors Welcome

Unusual Piano, Upholstery Rooms in P. A. Warehouse

Visitors are welcome at the Palo Alto Transfer and Storage Co. plant in Palo Alto. One should telephone Palo Alto 9081 first, then call to see what are considered two of the coast's most interesting, scientific storage rooms for pianos and upholstery.

The two rooms are notable for the thorough way in which goods are prepared and stored in them. Pianos, vulnerable to vermin preying upon the felt, glue and wood, are kept in a room in which there is no air circulating; where moisture—dangerous to piano wire—does not exist; where the temperature, practically speaking, is unchanging.

Before a piano is stored it should be thoroughly cleaned. It is then inspected and special napthalene flakes are sprinkled into parts most likely to be attacked by silver fish and other vermin. After the entire piano is treated it is wrapped as neatly as a Christmas package and stored in its allotted space.

The photograph at the left shows windows in the piano room and an electric lamp burning overhead in the middle of the vault. Light is an important safety factor in discouraging destructive vermin colonies.

The upholstery room, shown in the photograph below, is in the basement of the concrete and steel warehouse at High St. and Homer Ave. The room is so built that there is no chance of moisture encouraging mildew, mold, or rot. Rugs, draperies and upholstery receive a thorough cleaning, if requested, and the same careful inspection that is given to pianos. The naphthalene flakes are used as the chief anti-moth agent. Moth repellent paper is used for wrapping. Periodically the storage space is inspected and safety precautions renewed.

Fire hazard is practically nil, yet the firm requests the local fire department to inspect the premises twice a year—just in case. I. P. Vandervort, president of the company, explains that although the practice is probably unnecessary, it has been the firm's habit since it was founded 38 years ago, and he is sticking to it.

Good Old Chicken Salad He-Man Star's Favorite

Richard Arlen Voices Choice for "Salad Celebrity Week"

THROUGHOUT the town, food merchants are featuring "Salad Celebrity Week" and their stores are literally loaded with salad-time menu suggestions.

To commemorate the occasion, many movie celebrities were asked their favorite salads. Among them is Richard Arlen, starring in the new Universal production "Hot Steel," who says, "Good old chicken salad is what I go for—but I like it prepared this way—"

Here's his favorite recipe:

Favorite Chicken Salad

4 cups diced chicken
3 cups diced celery
2 diced oranges, free from membrane
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 to 1¼ cups Best Foods real mayonnaise
5 cups finely shredded red cabbage
Pimiento strips
Watercress

Lightly toss together chicken, celery, orange, seasonings and real mayonnaise. Arrange cabbage in salad bowl or on chop plate or platter. Heap the chicken mixture in the center and top with additional real mayonnaise. Garnish with pimiento strips and watercress. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Picketing at End, Nursery Drops Suit

Strike of the AFL Horticulturists and Floriculturists Union against the Colma plant of the E. W. McLellan Co. and against the nursery's San Francisco outlets has now ended, it was disclosed in a suit filed in superior court.

The company filed a suit of dismissal of its action against the union which had asked a restraining order against picketing and $25,000 damages.

In asking the dismissal, the firm explained that an agreement had been reached for a National Labor Relations Board election and that the union had agreed to cease picketing.

When the strike was called several weeks ago, the nursery charged that it was of a "jurisdictional" nature.

The hotel business ranks seventh in U. S. in number of employes and capital invested.

"If I had a CREED, this would be it:

"I BELIEVE IN AMERICA:

"BECAUSE we hate no people and covet no people's land;

"Because we are blest with a natural and varied abundance;

"BECAUSE we set no limit to man's achievement. In mine, factory, field, in service, in business or the arts, an able man, regardless of class or creed, can realize his ambition;

"BECAUSE we have great dreams and because we have the opportunity to make those dreams come true."

Snow Flakes Are Featured

The new Snow Flake advertising campaign is now being published each week in the Tribune. This newspaper and 141 other Pacific Coast daily newspapers are carrying this new and interesting advertising campaign for the National Biscuit Co.

Consistent users of newspaper space, National Biscuit Co. sales executives hold a high regard for the integrity of local newspapers as an advertising medium.

Photographic illustrations from real life highlight the new series of Snow Flake messages with characters carefully selected from the wide users of the product. Emphasis is placed on the associated uses of Snow Flakes with other popular food items, as well as on the quality ingredients used in the baking processes.

Local grocers are arranging special displays of Snow Flakes in their stores throughout the campaign.

Here are some recipes:

SNOW FLAKE CHICKEN PIE

1 can concentrated Mushroom Soup
1 cup whole milk
1 pimiento cut in small pieces
1 tablespoon minced parsley
2 cups diced, cold cooked chicken
Paprika
16 Snow Flake Crackers

Pour soup into top of double boiler, add milk. Heat over boiling water. Add pimiento, parsley and chicken. Cook until chicken is well heated. Pour into a buttered baking dish. Crumble Snow Flake Crackers (just crunch them in your hands, don't roll them out fine) and sprinkle generously over the top of the chicken mixture. Dot with butter and sprinkle with Paprika. Place in hot oven (425°F) until crackers are lightly browned. Serve immediately. Serves four.

Snow Flakes even find their way legitimately, too, into the closing course of a meal. A cheese tray edged with Snow Flakes and served with a bowl of fruit and nuts is hard to beat for flavor, satisfaction and decoration. It is a male favorite of long standing—and—a relief for us all in this day of rich, fancy desserts that women are apt to serve.

A New England Cracker Pudding with its spicy, satisfying flavor is a happy ending to a simple meal. The men will like this, too, even though it is richer in flavor than the cheese and cracker combination.

NEW ENGLAND CRACKER PUDDING

18 Snow Flake Crackers
5 tablespoons butter
1½ cups seeded raisins
4 cups scalding milk
3 whole eggs
3 egg yolks
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup cream

Spread crackers with butter. Barely cover the raisins with boiling water and cook until plump. Arrange alternately a layer of crackers and a layer of raisins in a greased baking dish. Pour the hot milk over this and let stand for half an hour. Beat eggs and yolks well; add salt, sugar, spices and cream. Combine with first mixture in the baking dish and bake in a moderately slow oven (325°F) for 2 hours. Serve with Hard Sauce.

Superior Court Trial Faces R. C. Youth

John A. Peterson Jr., 19, of 563 Beresford Ave., Redwood City, was held to answer to superior court when he appeared before Judge Gus B. Risso in Burlingame Wednesday for preliminary hearing on a charge of auto theft. Young Peterson is being held under $500 cash bail.

He was arrested in Brisbane Oct. 7 by San Bruno police after an 80-mile-an-hour chase on Bayshore Hwy. to Brisbane. Deputy Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel said Peterson was on probation from the Preston Reformatory where he had been sent for a previous auto theft.

Recreation Bond Vote To Be Asked

Confronted with a mass of proposals for purchase of land and for development of the recreation and parks program in numerous other ways, the Redwood City Parks and Recreation commission Tuesday decided to ask the city council to consider a bond issue to finance an increased program.

"The commission doesn't know how much it will recommend for a bond issue," Chairman Andrew Spinas said, "but a committee of three will work out a program and present it to the council at its next meeting."

The committee includes Donald L. Bogie, chairman; Miss Helen A. Smith and Spinas, and it will meet tomorrow afternoon with City Manager Charles L. Dimmitt to draft a letter to the council outlining suggested expenditures.

Kiwanis Club

Terrors of Nazi Concentration Camp Described to Service Club

Terrors of a Nazi concentration camp were relived by a former inmate at a luncheon meeting of Redwood City Kiwanians Wednesday.

The former inmate, Hans Roth, ex-newspaper photographer in Germany who recently opened his Newton Studio Portrait Photograph Shop in Palo Alto, recounted brutalities experienced and seen during a two months' imprisonment.

"Germany in general is starving to death and a few guards control thousands of prisoners through literally starving and beating all resistance from their bodies," he disclosed.

Seventeen thousand prisoners, including men of all ages, professions, vocations and businesses, were in the camp near Berlin where Roth was incarcerated. Guards numbered 100.

ESCAPE IMPOSSIBLE

"Escape is futile," said he in broken English. "If a prisoner touches a lawn on the inside near a massive wall, a machine gunner atop the barrier opens fire. Should a man miss being shot down while running across the lawn, he would crash into highly charged electric wires. Should he manage to pass through these wires, he would find himself at the bottom of a cement wall impossible to scale."

Roth, Austrian by birth, said he never learned the cause of his imprisonment, but guessed "maybe it was because I didn't shout 'Heil Hitler' enough."

As an example of camp treatment, Roth told of a group of 60 young men received at the concentration site one day being forced to strip and take showers together.

"While in the showers, the men were clubbed and beaten so badly, they lacked strength to walk from the shower room. They later were more or less dragged out," he explained.

Persons die "like rats" in these camps, reported Roth, who added that after death, bodies are cremated and the ashes sold to relatives for the "equivalent of $40 or $50 in American money."

The Gestapo (secret police) operate in amazing fashion, Roth recalled.

"Officers ask youngsters on their way to school if their parents the preceding night have said anything against the Nazis or anything implying that 'Hitler is not next to God,' and if they have, solely on such reports from children, the parents are incarcerated," he said.

Germany is reported by Roth as really not benefiting from food recently confiscated in The Netherlands.

"The average person does not get any of that food," he asserted. "In Germany everything is synthetic. Suits made from a paper compound look like wool and last two weeks.

"At present prices in Germany, if one works hard, lives frugally, the person may save enough in four years to buy one suit," he added.

Individuals are issued government cards containing 100 squares each annually, Roth reported. When a commodity is purchased, so many squares are punched on the card.

"Imagine getting 40 squares punched out in buying a pair of shoes," said he.

ASK POLICE FOR AID

When all squares on the card are used, the individual in dire need applies to the Gestapo. Officers examine the person's needs, thoroughly check everything in the person's home and then may issue raiment.

"Many persons prefer to go barefooted after wearing out shoes rather than have a Gestapo search," explained Roth. "Many persons hoard food when possible and if officers find evidence of hoarding in a home, the resident is punished severely."

Roth regained his liberty through an American friend signing papers for his release. The photographer has succeeded in getting his parents from Germany to Australia and hopes eventually to have them in the United States.

Ferris Miles, club program chairman, presided yesterday.

Historic Sites May Be Filmed

SAN CARLOS — Possibility of taking a motion picture of historic points on the Peninsula, dealing with the settlement of this area by the Spanish centuries ago and the growth of civilization since, will be investigated by a committee of the San Carlos Community Club, it was decided Tuesday at the club's monthly meeting.

Fred H. Drake is chairman of the committee. He will be assisted by William Penaat, Charles Page, Carl Yearing and Lawrence Miller.

San Carlos was the site of the first hacienda and rancho established by the Spanish in California, after their explorations from Mexico.

Penaat also was appointed by Pres. Arthur Gamble to arrange a political debate between leading local Republicans and Democrats, to be held at the San Carlos Grammar School Auditorium Nov. 1.

Next regular meeting of the club will be held Nov. 26. A social meeting is planned, and Miss Jessie Haynes, Mrs. Charles Page and Miller will be the committee in charge. Refreshments will be served at all future meetings, it was decided.

15-Day Jail Term Given Reckless Autoist

Arthur G. McKinney, 22, of San Jose, was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail yesterday when he pleaded guilty in Judge E. I. McAuliffe's court to a misdemeanor hit-run charge. The charge was reduced from felony hit-run on motion of Dep. Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel. McKinney was involved in an Oct. 12 accident on Middlefield Rd. in which Watson L. Dimock, 75, of Menlo Park, was injured.

PAYS $25 FINE

SAN CARLOS—Daniel J. McBride, 47, San Francisco salesman, paid a $25 fine and was given a five-day suspended sentence when he pleaded guilty in Judge Rupert C. Johnson's court to a charge of drunk driving. McBride was arrested by San Carlos police Oct. 17.
